

NATIONAL HISTORIC PRESERVATION MONTH

WHEREAS, historic preservation values the contributions and influences of those who came before us and acknowledges the dedicated individuals that created a legacy for future generations; and

WHEREAS, historic preservation links us to the physical evidence of the past by restoring, preserving, protecting, and educating people of all ages, all walks of life, and all ethnic backgrounds; and

WHEREAS, historic preservation is the history that we can see and experience by preserving the character of our community through the revitalization and adaptive reuse of historic buildings; and

WHEREAS, the City of Glendale embraces its unique heritage and is committed to enriching the lives of residents and visitors alike by honoring the past and preserving the future through thoughtful preservation planning; and

WHEREAS, Glendale, Arizona, joins with the National Trust for Historic Preservation and other communities across the nation in celebrating National Preservation Month 2013 with the theme "See, Save, Celebrate."

NOW THEREFORE, I, Jerry P. Weiers, Mayor of the City of Glendale, Arizona, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim May, 2013, as and call upon the residents of Glendale to join their fellow citizens across the United States in recognizing and participating in this special observance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 23th day of April, 2013.
